LOSS OR DAMAGE TO INSURED PROPERTY

Notification

You should always notify the Company of a claim as soon as possible and in any event within the notification period stated in the policy documents. Failure to do so may result in further and aggravated damage to the insured property or deny the Company the opportunity to attempt to mitigate the loss or prejudice our position as far as recovery is concerned. Should this happen, the Company may reserve our rights and decline to consider your claim.

Important points to note (please peruse your policy for detailed wordings)

Contribution

If you have any other insurance covering the property damaged or lost you should declare this to the Company. The Company shall not pay or contribute more than its ratable proportion of the loss.

Average

If the value of the insured property is actually higher than the amount insured in the policy at the time of loss, the Company will only pay a ratable proportion of the loss up to the insured value and you will have to bear the remaining loss on your own. Every item, if more than one, shall be separately subject to this condition.

You should therefore make sure that you have put in an adequate sum insured for your property and should at the least review your sum insured upon every policy renewal. The onus of ensuring an accurate sum insured shall rest on you.

Waiver of Average

If the insured dwelling is not a landed property (not a terrace house, semi-detached house or bungalow) and you have insured both building structure and contents, average will be waived. However, you should still make sure that you have declared a reasonable sum insured otherwise you may not be adequately protected.

Average Relief

For landed property policyholders, average will not be applied if the sum insured at the time of loss is at least 85% of the sum insured declared under the policy.

Depreciation

The amount to be settled will take into consideration proper allowance for wear, tear or depreciation.

Subrogation

If the loss of damage to the insured property is caused by a third party's action the Company will have a right of recovery against the third party. In these instances, you shall co-operate with the Company as required in order that we may enforce our recovery rights.

Duty of Care

You should always act as if uninsured and take all reasonable care to maintain and keep the insured property in a proper state of repair and take all reasonable precautions to prevent accidental loss or damage to the property insured.

LIABILITY CLAIMS - LOSS OR DAMAGE TO THIRD PARTY PROPERTY OR INJURY TO THIRD PARTIESNotification

You should always notify the Company of a claim as soon as possible and in any event within the notification period stated in the policy documents.

- ◆ Failure to do so may prejudice our position on liability and/or recovery prospects and deny the Company the opportunity to investigate the matter early.
- ◆ Timely notification will enable the Company to take whatever action as is necessary to mitigate the loss and/or achieve an amicable settlement. Early settlement of a claim will result in cost savings for all parties.
- ◆ You should co-operate and ensure the co-operation of your employees with the Company in our investigation process.

Non or late reporting of claims, failure to pass documents from third parties to the Company or non co-operation may prejudice our position. Should this happen, the Company may reserve our rights and decline to consider your claim.
